

Auction Rules

1. This is an open auction. Non-members are welcome to participate.
2. Registration will begin at 7:30 a.m. and close at 10:45 a.m.
3. All items must be registered by the auction staff prior to being placed on the tables. Any unregistered items will be removed,
4. All livestock must be properly bagged in regular fish bags. A fee will be levied for any items requiring re-bagging.
5. Each bag must be labelled with:
 - a. Item name and description.
 - b. Number enclosed.
 - c. Seller and table number. (Seller and table number labels will be available at the door.)
 - d. Additional adhesive item labels will be available at 10 for $1.00.
 - e. Non-operational or incomplete equipment must be marked as such.
6. No registered item may be removed from the auction room without the permission of the auction co-ordinator or appointed representative.
7. All items must be related to the aquarium hobby.
8. The auction committee reserves the right to reject any items not suitable for sale including, but not limited to, deformed fish, species crosses and banned or restricted livestock.
9. If there are more than 5 of the same item from one seller, those items may be auctioned together with the highest bidder getting first choice and Dutch style thereafter until all bags are sold.
10. All items, once declared sold, become the responsibility of the purchaser.
11. Any item not claimed after the close of the auction and not properly registered will become the property of the London Aquaria Society.
12. Bidding for any item will start at no less than $1.00 and will increase in $1.00 increments. The LAS will retain full proceeds of any item that sells for $1.00.
13. Minimum bids must be clearly marked on both the item and the registration form. The LAS will charge a fee of $1.00 per item with a minimum bid, payable upon registration.
14. The London Aquaria Society will retain 30% of the proceeds of all sales. Same day payout of proceeds is anticipated. For sellers who do not remain until the end of the auction, a cheque will be forwarded to you.
15. This is a CASH ONLY auction.

Please feel free to contact the auction co-ordinator with any questions or to obtain seller numbers.
